

Statement

March 16, 2019

This statement is to document my recollection regarding Andrea Cincotta's financial contribution to building the house that she referred to as "the beach house." My understanding from her comments during therapy sessions in a period from 1995, when the property was acquired through 1998, that her way of contributing to the construction of the house was to relieve Chris of the obligation of paying for a portion of the expenses of the condo they shared. When Chris first moved into the condo with Andy, I think that they were splitting the mortgage roughly equally as his contribution to the joint living expenses. This statement is based on my recollections of Andy's comments during therapy sessions.
